

National Survey: Overwhelming Support for Horse Racing Safety Reform

Support for Congress passing horse racing drug and safety legislation before adjourning for the fall elections

92.16% YES

7.84% NO/UNSURE

Awareness of the 2019 spike in racehorse deaths

78.03% AWARE

21.97% NOT AWARE

Support the adoption of national racetrack safety standards through a racetrack accreditation program

94.22% YES

5.78% NO

Support for the U.S. Anti-Doping Agency's managing an anti-drug program, including testing

85.27% YES

14.73% NO/UNSURE

Support race-day and out-of-competition drug testing

93.35% YES

6.65% NO/UNSURE

Misuse of therapeutics drugs

82.63% WIDESPREAD & SYSTEMATIC

11.80% PERVASIVE, BUT BEING MANAGED

4.04% ISOLATED & INFREQUENT

Aware of doping and safety issues

92.17% DOPING

78.90% RACETRACK SAFETY

Awareness of the controversy over racehorse medication

90.86% AWARE

9.14% NOT AWARE